

ISLES OF SCILLY

Autumn Migration, Flowers & Butterflies

“In Comfort & Style” Sep 25-30

Birding Areas & Highlights

The Scilly Isles: An idyllic paradise some 30 miles west of Land’s End with spectacular white sandy beaches surrounded by beautiful turquoise-blue waters, rugged moorland, ancient woodland & sheltered bulb fields. It’s stunningly beautiful!

Internationally famous for migrants including raptors, waders, warblers, pipits & wagtails, chats & flycatchers to name just a few! Arriving from Scandinavia, Russia, southern Europe & North America, regular scarce visitors include Great Northern Diver, Spotted Crake, Pectoral Sandpiper, Dotterel, Wryneck, Tawny Pipit, Ortolan, Lapland Bunting, Barred Warbler, Red-backed Shrike & Firecrest. In windier weather, Kittiwakes, Fulmars & Gannets often pass by, sometimes accompanied by skuas, terns & shearwaters.

Botanically, King Proteas surely steal the show, together with fields of Belladonna Lilies & Bermuda Buttercups admixed with wild Cornflowers. Atlantic Seals prepare to “pup” whilst butterflies may well include, Speckled Wood, Small Copper and the rare Clouded Yellow.

Itinerary

Morning departure via Skybus (or Scillonian if preferred) to St Mary’s and transfer by boat for short crossing over to Bryher for 5 nt. stay. Exploring Bryher & neighbouring Tresco, inc. the Great Pool and the famous Abbey Garden, plus cruising over to St Martins and St Agnes for more exciting migrant birds, wild flowers & butterflies. Late morning return flight from St Mary’s or Scillonian.
